Important Notice

Due to heavy volume of passport applications being received, processing time is now taking six to eight weeks from the time a record is created at the Special Issuance Agency to a passport being issued.

Expedite requests are taking up to four weeks to be processed from the time a record is created at the Special Issuance Agency for a passport to be issued.

Due to the volume of status inquiries received by our office each day, all email status checks will take a minimum of three days to receive a response.
